

Mrs Dominica Urmson

Bachelor of Laws

Bachelor of Arts (History; Chinese language)

Graduate Diploma of Teaching (Secondary)

Dominica Urmson joined St Andrew's College as teacher of Year 10 GATE and Year 9 and 10 Social Studies in 2015. She grew up in Australia and the UK and now calls Christchurch home. Dominica studied at University of Canterbury before practising law in Auckland where she was a litigator, specialising in trust and estate disputes. She returned to Christchurch to pursue her vocation as a teacher, training in secondary teaching at the New Zealand Graduate School of Education. Her main teaching subjects are Social Studies, History, English and Chinese language. Dominica loves learning about the world's diverse cultures and global issues. She loves working on learning enrichment, both in specialist learning support and gifted and talented education. She enjoys playing the violin, spending time with family, cycling and exploring New Zealand's magnificent tramping routes.
